Chocolate Challenge™

- AIM: To simulate business processes in a light-hearted and highly creative environment, requiring co-operation, mental and artistic skills (and several kilos of chocolate!).
- FORMAT: Participants are divided into teams of approximately five to undertake various challenges. These include designing and producing an original box of chocolates from raw materials.
- ACTIVITIES: Piping names on chef's hats (in chocolate of course), producing chocolate self-portraits and creating branded boxes of individual delights! To acquire learning points participants can develop marketing, packaging and strategic plans and make a 30 second TV commercial. Each aspect can be reviewed to draw out parallels with day to day working life.
- TIMINGS: Normally half a day but can be combined with other challenges to make a full day programme.
- LOCATION: Selected hotels throughout the UK and overseas
- DRESS: Casual wear (aprons will be provided)
- COSTINGS: £1620 for up to 12 participants
£135 per additional participant
Facilitation, if required, is charged at £1050 (half day) or £1900 (full day)
- Prices exclude VAT and travel
- NOTES: The Chocolate Challenge™ is ideally suited to being incorporated into assessment / review training (e.g. Belbin/Myers Briggs Type Indicator)
